An Independent Haby Seal.

The menagerie at Central Park, New York, was increased on Sunday night by the arrival of a baby seal. The little animal was born just after sundown, and when less than an bour old swam about with great glee in a small basin of water. The little fellow weighed a trifle over a pound and drank over two cups of milk before midnight. This is the first seal ever born in Central Park.

long and well kept by Mr. Louis Faber, at 405 Eleventh street. Mr. Harris was one of the best known and most popular of the hotel men in Washington, and it was by a combination of legal circumstances that he was dispossessed of the hotel bearing his familiar name.

In speaking of his experience there, Mr. Harris said: "During the time I ran the hotel I had quite a time with the property. From 1880 to 1883 the hotel was unoccupied, and when I leased it in "83 I was handed a very poor record of the place—the failure of three predecessors—but I went in to win, and, with the assistance of friends, made a promising beginning. Soon after I got started the National Theatre burned down, causing me great loss. It empited the hotel completely of the guests. No sooner did I recover from the effects of the fire than the owner of the property got into litigation with the mortgagee, which finally culminated in the last named party securing possession at public sauction.

finally culminated in the last named party securing possession at public auction.

"He would not recognize the title of my lease and entered suit for possession. I fought for my rights, but was beaten and received an order to vacate on the 20th of May last. The case has been fully ventilated in the papers for the last three years." It is needless to add that Mr. Harris will make a success of his new venture, which will be known by his name. Mr. Harris will make some imprevenents and the place will be fully under way in a day or two.

Sporting Notes.

The Phillies have secured John Ward, but not the Ward. President Reach closed a deal with the New Orleans Club yesterday, whereby their second baseman, John Ward, has been transferred to the Phillies' pay-roll. He is a good, free hitter and an exceptionally fine fielder. Last year he played with the Allentown Club of the Central League and led in fielding average and stood very high as a batter. He has left for Philladelphia where he is expected to arrive in time to play in to-morrow's game against Washington.

This player had been eagerly sought after sale cash. For mation, apply to CHAPIN BROWN, Trustee. 321 4; st. n. w.

St. John's Commandery Ladies.

The ladies of St. John's Commandery, United Order of the Golden Cross, gave a parlor entertainment to the members and friends of the order at Washington Hall last evening. The hall was crowded and was beautifully decorated with flowers and shaded lamps, so arranged that the room gave the appearance of a large parlor. After the programme, which was in charge of Dr. S. A. H. McKim, was concluded the ladies served their friends with refreshments. Following is the programme: Remarks by Grand Commander John N. Ehle and Representative to the Supreme Commandery A. G. Heylin; songs by the Amerostia Giec Club, Mr. Fred Grant, Miss Hattie Meids and Miss Hattie Bugbee; recitations, Miss C. Bohanan and Mrs. F. E. Woodward; reading, Mrs. Peabody. An original poem was also read by Mr. Fred E. Woodward. The feature of the entertainment was the little songs of Miss Hattie Bugbee. The ladies intend giving a series of these socials. Long Bridge Open for Travel.

The Pennsylvania Railroad announces that the work on the Long Bridge is suffi that the work on the Long Bridge is sufficiently completed as to enable trains to pass over it safely, and, commencing to-day, all scheduled accommodation trains to and from Alexandria will resume running. Trains leaving Washington 7:45 a. m. and 4:55 p. m. will run through to Quantico, and train leaving at 6:21 p. m. will continue through to Fredericksburg.

There are still some breaks on the R., F. & P., which will prevent travel through to Richmond for a few days yet.

Another Great Game promised.

To-morrow will be a great day in the local baseball annals. The only great teams in Washington, the "Clubs" and the "Diamonds"—the former policeman, the latter reporters—will give the hungry public an exposition of the national game which will make the eyes of experts bulge out with delight. The eighteen athletes have been carefully selected, not only on account of their muscular ability and the extraordinary character of their hat bands but because of their angelic dispositions. This is a guarantee that the game will not end in a free fight, no matter which team loses. The stellar attraction, however, will be the umpire, the world-renowned Nick Young, the president of the league, the great manufacturer of umpires, the only man in the broad expanse of this universe who never blundered in calling balls and strikes and whose decisions on lease play cannot possibly be unjust. The game will be called at 4.15 o'clock. Come early and avoid the rush. Another Great Game promised.

Direct Routes of Travel. Direct Routes of Travel.

The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. is the shortest and most direct route from Washington to all points West. The difference in distance as compared with other railroads is as follows: To Pittsburg, 72 miles; to Cincinnati, 184 miles; to Chicago, 39 miles; to St. Louis, 101 miles. Through coaches and Pullman's Drawing Room Sleepers run daily via B. & O. R. R. from Washington to all points named, and the service is unsurpassed.
